A vintage photograph of a man with dark hair and a mustache, wearing a dark blue turtleneck sweater over a white collared shirt, working on a large-scale wooden roller coaster model. He is focused on assembling or adjusting a track section. The model is a complex structure of light-colored wooden beams forming a multi-level track. The background shows an indoor workshop environment.

A photograph showing a group of five people outdoors, working together to lift a large, light-colored wooden beam. Four individuals are visible from behind, holding the beam up with their hands raised. They are dressed in casual clothing: a red sweater, a dark jacket, a brown vest over a white shirt, and a blue jacket. A fifth person, a man in a blue jacket, stands to the right, looking up at the beam. The background shows trees and a bright sky.

Der løftes i flok ...

A color photograph showing a man with a mustache and dark hair, wearing a light blue long-sleeved shirt and brown leather tool belt, working on a roof. He is leaning over, holding a long, light-colored wooden board. Another man, wearing a blue jacket, is visible below him, also working on the roof. In the background, there is a paved area with several cars parked, including a red station wagon, a white van, and a red hatchback. A large green bush is on the right side.

A color photograph showing four people working on a boat. In the foreground, a man with a tattooed back and short brown hair, wearing olive-green cargo shorts, stands facing away from the camera. To his right, another man in a white tank top and blue jeans is bent over. In the background, a woman with short blonde hair, wearing a white tank top and khaki shorts, is kneeling and working on the boat's hull. A fourth person, a man in a blue long-sleeved shirt, is also visible. The boat has a white hull with red and black stripes. The scene appears to be outdoors on a sunny day.
